I wanted to know if there was any trick to getting it off, which the tech failed to inform me.

In addition to the topical application of the opioid, such as morphine, using a spray, the opioid may be applied using a variety of different topical formulations such as gels, creams, etc.

The auto-injector also has a new shape that’s easier to grip.