abc co hosts a two day conference on the latest developments within a particular field and engages various experts to present papers and lead workshops at the conference

if we could cut this out then the number of people falling for this particular scam would drop dramatically this type of crime may be underreported as victims might be hesitant to report such incidents to the authorities, since they were engaged in illegal activity at the time