it's just never, ever made sense to me to judge other human beings on anything as arbitrary as race, gender, sexuality or physical ability.

hood, Texas, about two months ago and volunteered for duty with the female engagement team after arriving in country.

dieticians who go to incredible lengths to help me out, just because we asked...